VIRGINIA

History and Literature

The old Tower built in 17th Century still stands at Jamestown.

VIRGINIA

The roses no-where bloom so white,

As in Virginia.

The sunshine no-where shines so bright,

As in Virginia.

The birds sing no-where quite so sweet,

And no-where hearts so lightly beat.

For heaven and earth both seem to meet,

Down in Virginia.

The days are never quite so long,

Nor quite so filled with happy song;

As in Virginia.

And when my time has come to die,

Just take me back and let me lie,

Close where the James goes rolling by:

Down in Virginia.

There's nowhere a land so fair,

As in Virginia.

And I believe that happy land

The Lord's prepared for mortal man,

Is built exactly on the plan

Of old Virginia.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The year's work is ended, and once again, we come to you in the shape of this interesting booklet, giving information to those, who have been less fortunate than we, in being deprived of the privilege of meeting with us, during the year. I gladly avail myself of this opportunity to convey to you a cordial greeting and a brief message. The great trust that you have again placed in my hands, makes me feel keenly the responsibility, and I pray that I may be true to that trust. The faith manifested in me, after four years of very imperfect service, is an honor greatly appreciated, and will stimulate to greater efficiency. But as in the past, I must ask your hearty co-operation, tending to make the work a success, and feel assured of the same. The past year marks an era of success, in the history of the Alumnae, due to interchange of thought and untiring efforts among officers, committees and members, also to harmonious relations which have existed and made the work a pleasure, for each and every one have made "a long, strong pull together." The hope of every Alumnae, was realized on the evening of January 29, when in banquet hall, your President placed in the hands of Dr. W. W. Smith, of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, a check for $1,500.00, thereby giving us, the fruit of our labors—the "Scholarship." As a compliment to our first President, Mrs. Tommie Hall Lander, now of Brazil, the scholarship was awarded to her daughter, Laura Hall Lander, who entered the college on duty the first of the year. Other good things have followed in succession. We are now in possession of a "charter," a seal and in good standing financially as you will see, from your treasurer's report. Our friends have been very kind to us, and we appreciate their interest. At present there is no special work on hand, save the literary feature, but hope to hear from you during the next session, as to your pleasure in the work we undertake. Do your part to make the coming year, one of the most successful, intellectually, socially and financially is the wish of,

Most sincerely yours,

MAE WHITE FREEMAN.

The Norfolk College Alumnae Association

For the Promotion of the Higher Education of Women

Requirements for Receiving Scholarship

The Norfolk College Alumnae Association and its "Saunders Memorial" Chapter is prepared to offer a scholarship, of the value of the annual proceeds of fifteen hundred ($1500.00) dollars, in the Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va., in honor of the late R. M. Saunders, beloved principal of the Norfolk College for Young Ladies. Preference will be given in the award of the scholarship, to daughters of the Alumnae and to women from the States of Virginia and North Carolina. Applications will be received by the Chairman or any member of the Board of Education, and should be presented before January 31st.

It has been decided to give this scholarship, without competitive examination, but to require from candidates, evidences of ability and fitness as follows:

Mrs. Nellie Mason Miranda.....Chairman.

Mrs. Mabel Cole Davis,
Mrs. Katie Hughes Campe,
Mrs. Mary Tilley Martin,
Mrs. John L. Watson,

Miss Frances Dey.

OFFICERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

PRESIDENT.

MRS. MAE WHITE FREEMAN,

VICE-PRESIDENTS.

MRS. MABEL COLE DAVIS.
MRS. IDA BARCROFT WILLIAMS.

SECRETARY.

MRS. HENNYE SPAGAT NUSBAUM.

TREASURER.

MISS PEULAH SKINNER.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

MRS. MAMIE PEDRICK BROOKS.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Dr. William W. Smith, Chancellor of Randolph-Macon College, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Virginia" Thursday, November 15th, under auspices of the Alumnae and its Saunders Chapter. (Place of lecture announced later.)

The Norfolk College Alumnae Association has been promised a room in the Woman's Building of the Jamestown Exposition by the Chairman of the Board of Governors. The members are going to join in making this an attractive resting place and "cosy corner" for college girls and Alumnae who may visit the Exposition.

We have a charter. Now we want a home of our own. Our Association is here to stay. We want to feel our identity is firmly established—to be found in the city directory. Let us rent a room and all the members will join in making it home-like and beautiful.

All reports and business will be read and transacted at the business meetings of the Association. Monthly meetings will be devoted to the literary work and program of the month.

Members of the Norfolk College Alumnae Association are very much gratified at the news that Miss Laura Lander, of the Woman's College, at Lynchburg, has been selected to represent the college as a delegate to the National Young Women's Temperance Convention to be held at Asheville, N. C., this week. Miss Lander was a short while ago awarded the scholarship which the Norfolk College Alumnae controls at the Woman's College.

The Norfolk College Alumnae enjoyed a delightful reunion at the Pine Beach Hotel June 7th. It was a "shirtwaist banquet," and every one felt they were juniors at college, while the songs of the Alumnae Glee Club brought back the days of "Auld Lang Syne."

HOW TO BE A MODEL MEMBER

Always be at the meetings on time, unless sickness or some good excuse prevents. The only way to do this is to arrange the household affairs so that there will be no bread in the oven, no sewing or mending that can not wait. Rest, if possible, after luncheon so that you will not be tired. If you are a forgetter, have the date of meeting somewhere where you will see it. Plan to do your very best to make every meeting a success. Think and pray before the meeting, and you will be sure to be ready with heart and hand and voice to take part in any work or any discussion which may come up. Be in hearty sympathy with the plans of the President and help all you can.

Be true to your work. You may think you can do very little, but if done in a loving spirit the stamp of God's approval is upon what you do. In forgetting self you will be dominated by the golden rule.

Let's oftener talk of noble deeds,
And rarer of the bad ones,
And sing about our happy days,
And none about the sad ones.

We were not made to fret and sigh,
And when grief sleeps to wake it:
Bright happiness is standing by—
This Life is what we make it.

ALUMNÆ SONG

MISS GRACE COGGIN

Greetings we bring to all
Who graced our classic hall
In days of yore.
Let every glad voice raise
Our song of love and praise,
For sake of bygone days,
Before we go.

Turning o'er memory's page
Back to the golden age,
Happy are we.
Heart to heart, hand in hand,
A bright and joyous band,
Alma Mater, we will stand
Loyal to thee.

God grant us happy years,
Till the endless day appears,
Our journey o'er.
With those who still remain,
Keep us and leave us friends,
Till at last we meet again
In Heaven above.

LETTER FROM MRS. LANDER

after receiving news of her daughter being the first one chosen to receive the Saunders Memorial Scholarship

Juiz de Fora, Brazil, March 1, 1906.

My Dear Mrs. Brooks:

Yours of January 12th was unlucky and made a slow voyage. 'Tis a pity that good news has to travel slowly..

But my surprise was great and my pleasure intense when I read of the recent action of the Alumnae Association. I could scarcely believe that my Laura was really chosen to be the first to enjoy the privileges of the Saunders Scholarship. A letter from her in the same mail confirmed the news and showed how delighted she was.

I know not how to thank my old friends and schoolmates, my former pupils, and my new and unknown friends for the great honor they have shown me. I feel quite unworthy of this strong expression of their love and friendship. But most sincerely do I appreciate their action and give them my warmest thanks.

I sincerely hope that Laura will prove worthy of the position and will do honor to the Association, proving the wisdom of their choice.

It is interesting to me that just twenty years after I left Virginia my daughter goes there to pursue her studies. And it is wonderful to think that she will have Mrs. Saunders for her teacher.

I await with pleasure the details of arrangements about the scholarship, hoping to hear soon from your Board of Education and Dr. Smith.

Please, for yourself, accept my warmest thanks for your kind letter; and, for the Association, I beg you to convey to them my sincere thanks and appreciation.

Very truly yours,

TOMMIE HALL LANDER.
